SOURCE

1. It is reported that at a meeting of the Republican Party heads, Ugo della Seta, Giovanni Conti and Randolfo Pacciardi scheduled for 19 November, the Pacciardi group planned to force the Party to follow a more anti-Communist line.
2. This group is said to have received a promise of adherence from the Right wing Socialists Giuseppe Saragat and Angelo Corsi as well as from Action Party leaders if the new orientation of the Republican Party is anti-Communist. It is believed that Pacciardi hopes in this way to attract also Right wing Christian Democrats who are reported to be deserting De Gasperi for the Uomo Qualunque movement because of De Gasperi's weak policy toward the Left.
